“Faith Without Evidence”

Midlife Reinvention & the Courage to Choose Yourself

Michelle Giblin is the author of Faith, Italy & Finding Me, a memoir of the solo 28-day journey through Italy she took at 53 — a trip booked at midnight, on faith alone, with no itinerary and no one asking her to go. After decades of being wife, mother, employee, and everything to everyone else, Michelle stepped into her own “why not me?” moment. Today she's the founder of Namunyak Impact Group, a nonprofit partnering with women artisans in Kenya, and speaks to women's audiences about faith, reinvention, and the courage to act before life gives you proof.

SIGNATURE TOPICS

Eat, Pray, Love Me: Walking by Faith, Not by Sight — keynote

The full story: a mother's blessing, a year of trying something new, a midnight flight booked on faith — and what Italy taught her about moving before you have proof.

The Gift of Presence — keynote / talk

Reclaiming your own identity after a lifetime spent pouring into everyone else's list.

30 Days to Unstuck — interactive workshop

A practical, replicable framework — one new thing a day — for getting off the sidelines of your own life.

Solo, Not Alone — talk / small group

Worthiness, doing hard and joyful things by yourself, and learning that companionship with God is enough.
